

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA PRESS

PROUDLY PRESENTS #SHEARSHOWDOWN

LUCRETIA COFFIN MOTT

This Quaker minister was responsible for founding the Philadelphia Female Anti-Slavery Society, presiding over the American Equal Rights Association, and organizing the first women's rights convention in the U.S.!

VS.

ELIZABETH PATTERSON BONAPARTE

Madame Bonaparte, as she was known, was married to Napoleon's brother Jerome. With her notorious behavior, dashing husband, and associations with European royalty, she became one of America's first celebrities!

★ VOTE FOR YOUR CHAMPION: PLACE YOUR CARD IN THE DESIGNATED JAR ★

★ PRIZE: THE WINNER'S CORRESPONDING BOOK (TO BE SENT AT A LATER DATE) ★

★DISCLAIMER: BY PARTICIPATING, YOU AGREE TO BE CONTACTED WITH ANNOUNCEMENTS OF PRESS MATERIALS★